MISS LAWLOR- PILGRIMAGE TO ROME

We are incredibly proud to share that this week, Miss Lawlor was invited to take part in a very special pilgrimage to Rome during the Year of the Jubilee. As part of this extraordinary experience, she had the privilege of attending a private audience with Pope Leo XIV at the Vatican.

During the gathering, the Pope welcomed young people and teachers from across Northern Europe, encouraging them to listen to God's call and continue their journey of discipleship with open hearts and faith.

This was a truly memorable opportunity for Miss Lawlor, and we are delighted she was able to represent our school community on such a meaningful occasion.

OUR MISSION THIS WEEK

THE MISSION

JESUS I TRUST IN YOU

JESUS IS ALWAYS INVITING YOU TO TRUST HIM ON YOUR WALK THROUGH LIFE. YOUR MARK 10 MISSION IS TO MAKE A LIST, AND YOU CAN ADD TO IT THROUGH THE WEEK, OF ALL THE THINGS YOU WANT TO TRUST JESUS WITH. IT COULD BE SITUATIONS YOU ARE FACING, OR THINGS WHICH ARE HAPPENING TO YOUR FAMILY OR FRIENDS. ANYTHING THAT YOU WOULD LOVE TO HAPPEN BUT AREN'T SURE IT WILL, YOU CAN TRUST JESUS WITH. AFTER EACH THING YOU WRITE, SAY THE SHORT PRAYER WE LEARNED ABOUT IN THE VIDEO "JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU."

THE MARK 10 MISSION

In the Gospel, Jesus challenges his friends to step out and trust him. It's time for them to go out in twos into all the towns and villages where Jesus is to go. To stretch their trust levels, Jesus asks them to take very little for the journey. With the help of the image of Divine Mercy, the children reflected upon how Jesus always invites us to trust him more.

What Parents & Educators Need to Know about AI-ENABLED SCAMS

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is quickly becoming a widely used tool, with lots of positive applications being discussed and developed. Sadly, however, as with most technology tools, there are those who will seek to use it for malicious and dishonest practices, with children and other vulnerable groups particularly at risk.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

- PHISHING EMAILS: BETTER & QUICKER
Phishing scams – emails designed to trick people into handing over login details or money – are not new, and do not rely on AI. However, AI has made them far more dangerous. Criminals can now generate highly convincing emails at speed, mimicking an organisation's tone, branding and language with ease. This makes phishing attempts harder to spot, especially for young people who may not yet know what to look out for.
- ONLINE MARKETPLACE FRAUD
Online marketplaces are now a common way to buy and sell everything, from second-hand clothes to cars. Criminals are exploiting this by using AI to enhance or completely fake product photos and videos, and pressure buyers into paying deposits or full amounts upfront. These tactics are becoming more advanced, making it vital to pause, check, and verify the sale before parting with any money.
- VOICE IMPERSONATION
AI can now realistically impersonate a person's voice when given a small sample of someone's speech patterns. This is especially concerning where voice has been enabled as an alternative to password-based logins. One such example is the use of AI deepfake audio as part of a fake kidnapping scam: the criminals used an AI voice clone of a 15-year-old to convince her parents she had been kidnapped and elicit a ransom.
- EMPLOYMENT SCAMS
Using AI, criminals can create fake online profiles that seem completely real. These synthetic identities can chat with young people about fake job offers, asking for money to secure a visa or paperwork. In 2023, The Guardian reported a scam targeting young people with promises of quick cash, posing as TikTok staff.
- INFLUENCER & INVESTMENT SCAMS
AI tools now make it easy to manipulate video and audio, with technology available that can generate entirely fake content using the likeness of celebrities or influencers. Criminals are using this to create convincing videos of well-known figures promoting fake products or services, which young people can be particularly susceptible to. Cryptocurrency scams are a common tactic, luring people into investing in schemes that do not exist. Once payment is made, the criminal simply disappears with the money.
- ROMANCE SCAMS & SEXTORTION
AI chat bots can now mimic real conversations, often accompanied with realistic fake photos and videos, which makes it easier for criminals to build trust with young people – among other things, this can lead to fraud or extortion. In 2024, the NCA's CEOP Safety Centre received 380 reports of sextortion. Alarmingly, in the first five months alone, police received an average of 117 monthly reports involving under-18s, showing how serious and targeted this threat has become.

Advice for Parents & Educators

- THINK CRITICALLY
The key to addressing the increasing growth of AI-enabled scams is to think critically and show caution. Inform children that if something is too good to be true, it's probably a lie. Encourage them to stop and carefully consider what they are seeing and reading before taking any action. For example, if a social media post expresses urgency, proceed with caution; if content seems unusual, even from a known person, it may be that their account has been hacked.
- USE TRUSTWORTHY SITES AND SERVICES
Online marketplaces are useful when buying and selling items; however, where possible, encourage children to use reputable companies and their online shopping sites. These companies are likely to have more sophisticated cyber-security safeguards in place, underpinned by consumer legislation, enabling them to control how products and services are displayed and traded on their sites.
- SEEK TO VERIFY
Criminals may breach an influencer's account or spread misinformation and fake content; however, their approach will generally be limited to a single account, site or service. Where possible, show children how to verify information to check its legitimacy before proceeding. Small actions, such as phoning the person who is the subject of a suspicious email, or checking content via an individual or company website or social media sites can make the difference. The greater the risk, the more effort we should expend to confirm whether the information presented is true or false.
- REPORT IT
As the sophistication of scams increases, the likelihood of being tricked by them also increases, especially when not paying attention or acting quickly. It is important that young people know how to report incidents as they happen. Show children how to report their concerns to the social media site, Action Fraud, banks, and other individuals or organisations linked or involved. If you are unsure of the most effective reporting channel, contact Action Fraud.

AI isn't just transforming the way we learn and work, it's also reshaping the tactics scammers use online. From generating convincing phishing emails to fabricating influencer videos, criminals are using AI to make their scams more convincing than ever. Young people, who often embrace new tech quickly, can be especially vulnerable. This guide highlights several AI-enabled dangers – including romance scams, deepfake audio and video impersonations, and fake job offers – and explains how to spot and report them. With clear tips for verifying content, thinking critically, and using trusted platforms, it's essential reading for parents and educators to help young people stay one step ahead of the scammers..

As a school, we have a duty to carefully monitor the attendance of all children to ensure they are accessing their education and reaching their full potential

.This week, alongside your child's annual school report, you will receive an attendance letter via email. This letter will confirm whether your child has met the government's statutory attendance target of 95% for this school year. If your child has not met this target, you will receive a letter providing a breakdown of their absences. This will show the difference between:

Authorised Absences – absences that have been approved by school, such as illness (with appropriate evidence) or medical appointments.

Unauthorised Absences – absences that have not been approved by school, including holidays taken during term time without permission or unexplained absences.

We would also like to remind families that a child is considered a Persistent Absentee if their attendance falls below 90% across the school year.

If your child's attendance is a concern, the school is here to support you in improving this. If you would like advice or support regarding your child's attendance, please do not hesitate to get in touch with us. We are always happy to help and work together to ensure the best outcomes for our children.

Thank you for your continued support.
