Eco report written by the children for the children!

Last Thursday our Eco Team had our first meeting. We had lots of ideas but this is our key idea for this week:

OUR BINS – we are not sorting our waste properly. We are putting food waste in the recycling bin and recycling into our general waste bin and putting our general waste into our food waste bin (and vice-versa).

We are going to take immediate action:

- cleaning out the bins more often
- getting smaller bins that a different child is responsible for taking the bag out every day.

Facts

Did you know Ecosystems can be any size, from a small rock pool to a global ocean, and are made of both living and non living parts.

Around 10967 species of animals have been affected by climate change. Climate threatens thousand more, with some studies indicating nearly 5% of over 70,000 wild animals species are at risk of extinction.

Here are some animals that are at risk of extinction

- .A Amur leopard
- .A Sunda tiger
- .A mountain gorilla
- .A black rhino
- .An African elephant
- .A hawksbill turtle

Our Eco Team's Creative Challenge!

Mrs. Nicole and our Eco Team have been working hard to think of new ways to help the environment. They have come up with lots of exciting ideas! One idea is to make colourful art posters to hang around the school, helping everyone learn more about how our actions affect the planet.

Another idea is to spread positivity about our Eco-friendly artwork. Soon, we'll be using our creative minds to design pictures inside lightbulbs! When we're finished, we'll send our artwork to Miss Riach, who will choose her top three favourites.

Every class will take part in this fun challenge, and the winning lightbulb designs will receive a special prize and be shown in assembly. We can't wait to see everyone's bright ideas!

We are delighted to introduce our Weekly RE Showcase, where each year group will share highlights of their Religious Education learning. From thoughtful reflections to creative work, we are incredibly proud of the children's growing knowledge, understanding, and wonderful contributions.

Each week, we'll feature a different year group to celebrate their journey in faith and learning. Keep an eye out for inspiring displays of scripture, prayer, and how our pupils live out Gospel values in everyday life.

YEAR TWO

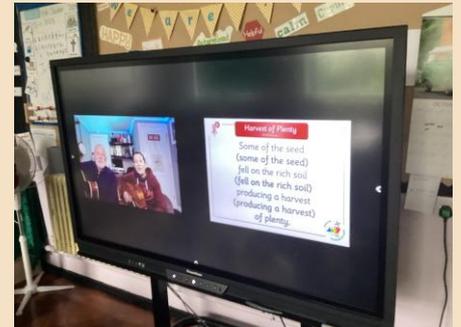

Year 2 have had a truly wonderful start to their Religious Education journey this year, filled with faith, reflection, and joyful participation. They began the term with a beautiful Family Faith Day focused on the theme of Creation and the life of St Francis.

It was a special opportunity to come together with their families, celebrate the beauty of the world around us, and reflect on how we can care for God's creation.

The children have taken great pride in leading their own child-led prayer services, showing confidence, reverence, and a deep understanding of how to create meaningful moments of worship.

They were also inspired by Dan and Emily's daily livestreams on Creation, which brought scripture and song into the classrooms and helped the children explore the wonders of God's world in a fun and engaging way.

Year 2 have also played an active role in the school Masses, reading bidding prayers with clarity and confidence, and taking part in the offertory procession with great respect. During October, they have embraced the Rosary Challenge, learning about the importance of prayer and taking time each day to reflect and pray together.

It has been heartwarming to see the children grow in faith, understanding, and spiritual leadership. Their enthusiasm and thoughtfulness have made this a truly special start to the year, and we look forward to continuing their journey together they deepen their relationship with God and one another.

Music Feedback from Mrs Colgan

Year 3: Year 3 have made excellent progress with their stick notation (Ta, Ti-Ti, Rest) and are now able to use three different pitches to compose their own melodies (H, M & L). Alongside this, they have covered a variety of songs in class. Their enthusiasm for music in class is wonderful and their behaviour has been very good.

Year 4: Year 4 has made excellent progress with their melodica playing. They can now play Hot Cross Buns (nearly from memory!) and using their developed listening skills to work together as a group, making sure to not speed through sections and to take note of rests. Their hand positioning has been very much improved and we they are making real progress on using the correct fingerings when playing the songs. Well done Y4!

Year 5: Year 5's confidence levels have increased as the weeks have gone by. It's been a pleasure watching this transformation in class and I'm hoping this will continue into the Christmas term. Y5 have covered a new rhythm: ti tika-tika, and have composed their own songs using all of their stick notation rhythms. They have learned many new songs and are beginning to explore harmonisation.

Year 5 have also begun to learn to read sheet music - an essential component of musical education. They are doing wonderfully and this can be seen in both their classes and their worksheets.

Well done Y5!

Thank you to everyone who attended the

This could include:

- Wellies or old trainers (that you don't mind getting muddy)
- Old trousers or jogging bottoms
- Waterproof clothing, if available

Your child's class teacher will be in touch closer to the time to let you know if any specific clothing or items are needed for their group's activities.

We're really looking forward to these enrichment days – they're a fantastic opportunity for children to explore new skills, enjoy creative learning, and make lasting memories.

This guide offers compassionate, practical advice for helping children cope with traumatic or challenging events - such as bereavement, bullying, or family upheaval - and begin the healing process.

When children and young people experience traumatic or difficult life events, their emotional world can be shaken, and the impact may show up in their behaviour, mood, or relationships. Whether it's bereavement, a family breakdown or witnessing something distressing, the support of trusted adults can be key in helping them feel safe again. This guide looks at how to create a nurturing environment to help young people process difficult feelings.

10 Top Tips for Parents and Educators
DEALING WITH TRAUMATIC & CHALLENGING EVENTS

Children and young people may face a wide range of traumatic or challenging events - from bereavement and illness to bullying, family breakdowns, or witnessing violence. These experiences can affect their mental health, behaviour, relationships, and academic progress. With the right support from trusted adults, children can begin to feel safe, rebuild resilience, and develop healthy coping strategies. This guide offers practical and empathetic ways to provide support and promote positive outcomes.

- 1 A PREDICTABLE ENVIRONMENT
Children who have experienced trauma often feel unsafe or uncertain. Creating routines, setting clear expectations, and maintaining consistency can help restore a sense of security. This structure offers reassurance and helps children feel more in control of their surroundings.
- 2 USE LANGUAGE THAT MATCHES THEIR AGE
Speak clearly and sensitively, choosing words that are appropriate for the child's age. Avoid overwhelming them with too much information at once. Offer gentle, honest explanations and focus on reassurance, especially when talking about difficult or sensitive subjects.
- 3 TRAUMA AND THE BODY
Mention briefly that trauma can show up in physical ways, such as changes in sleep, appetite, concentration, or as physical aches and pains. Consider this before labelling behaviour as 'difficult' or 'lazy'. Some children may become withdrawn, while others may be more outwardly challenging. Highlight that there's no 'one way' children respond.
- 4 AVOID RETELLING OR RELIVING TRAUMA
Children sometimes get asked to explain or repeat their experience multiple times. Striking a balance of when to listen and when to gently redirect can help to avoid unnecessary re-traumatisation. Acknowledge, but don't probe for detail unless safeguarding procedures require it.
- 5 AVOID DISMISSING OR MINIMISING FEELINGS
Seemingly well-meaning comments like "It's not that bad" or "You're okay" may shut down children's emotional expression and are often not helpful. Instead, acknowledge what they're feeling, even if it seems small. Validating a child's emotions helps them feel seen and encourages open communication in future.
- 6 UNDERSTAND HOW THEY'RE FEELING
Many children don't have the words to express their emotions, especially during distress. Supporting them to name what they're feeling - such as angry, scared or sad - builds emotional literacy. Tools like emotion charts, drawing, or storytelling can help externalise feelings in a safe, manageable way.
- 7 BE AWARE OF YOUR OWN RESPONSES
Children pick up on adult emotions and reactions, often mirroring them. Staying calm, even in challenging situations, helps children feel more secure. Practising your own self-regulation is an important way to model healthy stress management and encourages children to do the same.
- 8 SEEK PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT
While many children benefit from everyday emotional support, some will need more specialised help. If symptoms persist, worsen, or disrupt their daily life, consult with school safeguarding leads, a GP, or a mental health professional. Early intervention can prevent long-term difficulties and support healthy recovery.
- 9 MAINTAIN CONNECTION
Isolation can worsen the impact of trauma. Encourage involvement in group activities, praise their efforts, and ensure they feel like a valued part of the school or family community. Meaningful connection with trusted adults and peers builds resilience and a sense of belonging.
- 10 BE PATIENT - HEALING TAKES TIME
There's no quick fix for emotional recovery. Children may have good days and setbacks, and progress may not always be visible or linear. Your ongoing support, patience, and presence can help them move forward at their own pace, knowing they are not alone.

October Half term

This is a message from West Midlands Police for parents and carers about robbery, antisocial behaviour, and personal safety for young people.

Police and schools across the West Midlands are committed to working together to protect our young people from becoming victims of robbery and violent crime. We also want to reduce antisocial behaviour around fireworks, especially in the darker nights.

As we head into October half term, we are urging everyone to talk to their child about staying safe over Halloween and Bonfire Night.

We have seen an increase in criminals targeting young people who carry iPhones, wireless headphones or digital devices. Thieves are forcing young people to log out of their iCloud to prevent the phone being tracked after it's stolen. By enabling two-factor authentication on iCloud or your child's phone, can make thieves lose interest in taking their phone.

Increasing the security on your child's iPhone and iPad:

1. Firstly, talk to your child about enabling two-factor authentication on their devices to help keep them, and their phones, safe from theft and exploitation.
2. Reassure them that turning on location and enabling better privacy settings allows them to communicate with their friends and family safely and securely.
3. Turn on two-factor authentication for your child's Apple Account: On your iPhone or iPad: Go to Settings > [your name] > Sign-In & Security. Tap Turn on Two-Factor Authentication. Then tap Continue and follow the onscreen instructions.
4. Discuss with your child who they would like to add to their 'trusted contact list' and encourage them to save these numbers in their emergency contacts list in case they get into trouble.
5. Add your child's devices to your 'Family' by heading to your Apple ID settings and adding the devices.
6. From the 'Family' group you can enable content and privacy restrictions and two-factor authentication, as well as location sharing.

For further information visit: Use parental controls on your child's iPhone and iPad - Apple Support

If your child has an Android phone there are additional security settings, you can put in place to make sure the location of their phone and data is secure. Visit your phone provider website for further crime prevention advice.

Staying safe around Halloween and Bonfire Night:

We want everyone to go out and enjoy the festivities of Halloween and Bonfire Night, but this can be a worrying time for those most vulnerable in our communities. Before your child heads out with their mates, be sure to talk to them about how to respect others and how to get help if they find themselves in trouble.

You can download our parent's guide to Halloween and firework safety. Here are some top tips to give your child:

1. Plan a safe and familiar route and stick with friends.
2. Make sure phones are charged, location on, and kept out of sight.
3. Wear high-visibility clothing or something recognisable so friends and family can spot you in a crowd.
4. Attend a public firework display when you can and never handle adult fireworks.
5. Organise a safe meet-up place in case you lose each other at an outdoor event.
6. Never point fireworks at people, animals, emergency service vehicles, buildings, or roads.
7. Tell them that police can arrest and prosecute anyone using fireworks dangerously.
8. If someone has a 'no trick or treating' card in their window do not approach the property or ring the bell.

What to do if you are concerned about your child or a young person you know:

Talk to them in a safe and quiet location that feels comfortable for both of you.

You may wish to contact a member of the Pastoral Team at school if you feel your child isn't listening or is at risk. You can reach out your school's officers to seek advice. They can talk through your concerns and plan a way forward together.

If you or your child has been a victim of crime or their life is in danger, call 999 immediately. Alternatively, you can call 101 if the crime has happened and you want to report this to the police.

You can contact Crime stoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 or via www.crimestoppers-uk.org

Thank you, West Midlands Police.
