SPORTING EVENTS

This week CTK hosted a High Five match and welcomed All Souls to the school. Well done to CTK who won 10-0.

Thanks to Miss Walker and Miss Duffin who devote their time towards training and supporting the pupils.

ENRICHMENT DAYS

Class 11 have had a fantastic time during their first Enrichment Days.

They enjoyed making flapjack bars, participating in outdoor learning in our Forest School area and creating incredible art work.

This week we have seen more action in the Forest School area with a range of pupils from across KS2 working with Mr Hadlum to make their own creepy crawly out of natural objects.

We are incredible proud of the many CTK pupils who will be performing in this years YOG production of Nativity The Musical.

Following on from the much-acclaimed May production of Barnum and the success of last November with Elf the Musical, YOG is back with another feel good festive favourite... Nativity! Join Mr. Maddens and his enthusiastic and well-meaning assistant Mr. Poppy as St. Bernadette's School endeavour to grant every child's wish to star in their own Nativity!
